Dear Mr. Pennell:

I want to personally thank you for the currency that you just sent for the collection. They are really interesting and make an important addition to what you have already given us over the past several years. We are processing the paperwork at this time and you should receive it in the next few days.

Enclosed are a couple of pages from Eric Newman's book on early paper money. A friend of mine has been looking for examples of the ones I have checked so that he can make a slide to use in a program that he presents. Do you have any idea of where we might find examples of these bills? They are a good bit earlier than anything we currently have in the collection.

Again, thank you for the currency. I look forward to seeing you at the next Foundation board meeting.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Rodger E. Stroup

Dear Mr. Stroup:

You inquired from my friend Roy Pennell as to locating examples of two early South Carolina notes. We have them in our collection.

We are enclosing a print cut out from our book and hope these will serve for slide purposes. It seems unnecessary to forward these rare originals merely for the purposes of making a slide. If it is necessary to have color slides made, we believe it can be done at modest expense here in St. Louis, if that is essential.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Newman:

Thank you very much for the copies of the two early South Carolina notes that Mr. Pennell contacted you about on my behalf. I believe that the images you sent will work.

I was actually doing some legwork for Brad Rauschenberg at the Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts in Winston-Salem, N.C. Brad is working on some of the early symbols of the state and asked me if we had a copy of the note in our collection. I knew if we didn't that Mr. Pennell would know where we could find one.

Again, thank you for your help.

With kindest regards, I am
